but straight Hardware talk. You may think you'll not read it, but you will. The beauty of business is to do business in a business-like way—keep a good clean dollar-getting stock, sell at reasonable prices, treat customers politely, and rake in the cash when it comes your way. Its time of year to get in out of the cold—hover over the fire—and the need of the hour is

HEATING STOVES.

I have some solid comforts in the old reliable "ROUND OAK," which needs no song of praise to sound its worth.

The GARLAND—closing grate, latest improved; highly ornamental and nicely trimmed in nickel—a beauty.

Detroit Stove Co's WOOD BASE BURNER, a late pattern—handsome, well made—a regular earth-warmer.

COOKING STOVES.

I have a complete line of best makes and latest styles. But don't come here to buy a cheap stove. I don't keep them. They don't suit my patrons. None but the best for me.

CUTLERY.

Let me jog your memory to the fact that I have the finest line of AMERICAN CUTLERY in this county—which includes the best makes of Razors—Pocket Knives for a regiment of whittlers, etc.

Local Department.

Mrs. J. W. Free is on the sick list.

Editor Phillips of Hartford was in Paw Paw Friday.

Allegan has been suffering an outbreak of diphtheria.

Quincy has a recently re-organized Ladies' Republican Club.

E. R. Morgan and family are spending a week with Allegan friends.

Joseph Kilburn returned on the 20th from an eight months' stay in New England.

John Syke has grown a magnificent crop of celery this season, the finest we have seen anywhere.

Mrs. A. R. Chapman arrived from Petoskey last Wednesday and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Free.

Mrs. John Parker and children are spending some time here, and John came over for a Sunday rest.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith of Hartford, Conn., are the guests of Capt. Ed. having arrived last Thursday.

A. C. Glidden is touring the state to gather materials for Michigan's agricultural exhibit at the World's Fair.

On account of the Dowagiac fair, Oct. 4 to 7, the Michigan Central will sell round trip tickets for one fare.

Frank and Lizzie Pugsley went to Elkhart last Friday for a week's visit with their brothers residing there.

Ed. Darling and wife of Detroit spent two or three days of last week in this place while on their way to Salt Lake City.

B. W. Hipp has purchased a tract of timber near Hartford and about Oct. 1 will remove his block lathe to that village.

The Republican county ticket and every man upon that ticket is worthy the support of the voters of Van Buren county.

The Farmers' Union club will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. Douglass on Wednesday, Oct. 5. A full attendance is desired.

Mrs. Cox and Miss Scott, who spent the summer at Julian Sheldon's in Glendeburg, left for their home in Delphi, Ind., yesterday morning.

Hon. J. G. Parkhurst and Rev. I. P. Bates will address the Republicans on Friday evening, Sept. 30.

Editor Glidden of Our Rural Homes is preparing to resign his title of master of the household to a lusty ten-pound boy who arrived on Sept. 21.

Seven or eight car-loads of grapes shipped from Lawton each day of the past week kept things lively for the employees of the M. C. R. R. at that place.

Rev. W. J. Hathaway, who last year went from Paw Paw to Vicksburg, has been assigned to Plainwell for the coming year. Rev. J. H. Tanner remains at Mendon.

Mrs. Amanda Andrews last Wednesday returned from her trip to Denver, reporting a fine time touring around to The Garden of the Gods, Manitou, and over the famous Loop.

Mrs. M. V. Hungerford, our old-time Waverly correspondent, having rented her farm to Thomas Danger for four years, is about to move into town and will occupy a part of the residence belonging to Mrs. Sarah Avery.

We are indebted to A. S. Prentice for a copy of "Kalamazoo Illustrated." The press-work is by Hing Bros. & Everard, the illustrations by the Chicago Photo-Engraving Co., and the plan of the book well calculated to boom the Celery city.

The annual report of Adjutant-Gen'l Phisterer of the Grand Army of the Republic, given at Washington on Sept. 21, reports a gain during the calendar year of 64,401 members and a loss of 66,100, leaving a total membership on December 31 last of 407,781.

Captain E. Smith is enjoying a visit with his brother Charles and wife from Hartford, Conn.

Miles Whitford of North Waverly has traded his farm for the Wood farm in South Waverly, and will move onto it this week.

The Waverly Republicans expect to have a rousing time at the Bell school-house one week from to-night and are to have the Gobleville band in attendance.

Both the state and county Republican committee have been busy making assignments for political speeches and this issue gives the full schedule up to date.

We note from several of our exchanges that on Oct. 21 the country schools will close their programs early enough to participate in a monster afternoon parade to be held in town.

Mrs. Rudolph Rogers returned last week from Chicago where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Ferguson, bringing news of the arrival on Sept. 1st of a pair of twins at the Ferguson home, only one of which survived.

We trust that our Board of Health will at once see to it that the renovation and disinfection so vigorously prosecuted in many parts of the country, are not neglected here. "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure," and no time should be lost.

The number of drunken men and boys reeling about our streets on last Saturday evening, and the numerous alleys and stairways improvised as temporary saloons, created much comment among our citizens and proved a most disgraceful wind-up to the Democratic rally.

John Ihling's beautiful vineyard is now being rapidly spoiled of its luscious fruitage and a whole car-load went one day this week to Stern, the Kalamazoo fruit dealer, for cold storage. Mr. Ihling expects to have not less than 40 tons of these white Niagaras.

The friends and neighbors of C. W. Whipple of Waverly gave him a birthday surprise last Friday night, carrying a pair of gold-bowed spectacles as a token of their regard. John Sherrod presented them with the remark that he trusted the recipient would be able to see more clearly than ever.

The "North Shore Limited" will be in waiting at the foot of Kalamazoo street at 7:15 this evening ready to transport a large company of ladies and gentlemen to Lake Cora, where they will be entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Parks, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Heckert, and Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Anderson.

Kalamazoo last week appointed a sanitary inspector, who was sworn in as a police officer and detailed to visit every building and dwelling in the city with a view to having all nuisances removed. Some such action as this should be taken in every city and village in the United States, as cholera is indisputably a child of filth and carelessness.

The teachers and citizens of South Haven have already held a meeting to make preliminary arrangements for a Columbian celebration to occur in that village on the 21st of October, and all the schools in that vicinity are to be invited to assist in the program. Paw Paw should see that she is not behind her progressive neighbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dunning and Miss Belle Bitley went to Chicago last week Monday, spending a couple of days looking over the city and taking in the World's Fair grounds. On Tuesday evening Miss Belle left for Portland, Oregon, and the next day her companions returned to this place for a few days before settling down for the winter in their Bay City home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Tuttle was recently the scene of a pleasant event, the occasion of which was the arrival of that congenial couple at the 25th mile-stone on the matrimonial highway. It was a quiet affair, participated in only by neighbors and intimate friends, but was none the less enjoyable on that account. We wish the worthy couple many happy returns of the day.

The ladies of the "Ismon row" a few days since made up a quilting party for the benefit of Mrs. James Doyle. After the quilt was off and everything cleared away Uncle Jimmy came into the room "to buzz a little wid 'em," as he tells it, "and they sazed hold o' me, wrapped me in the quilt, and rolled me all over the flure. Begorra, an' I hadn't so fine a bit o' sport since I used to be huggin' Katie O'Shane in Ould Ireland."

Mrs. Wm. Clark, who has for several years been a sufferer from heart disease and for weeks lain at the point of death, was at last released from pain last Sunday at 3 a. m. Such was the nature of the case that immediate burial was necessary with a simple service of song and prayer, but a memorial service will be held at the Free Baptist church Sunday morning. Deceased was a consistent Christian of many admirable qualities and will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends hereabouts who sincerely sympathize with the husband thus left alone in the decline of life.

Following are the assignments of pastors to the several M. E. churches in this (Niles) district for the conference years just commenced: Presiding elder, J. W. H. Carlisle. Bangor and Breeds-ville, A. J. Wheeler; Benton Harbor, P. J. Maveety; Berrien Springs, W. A. Prouty; Buchanan, I. Wilson; Cassopolis, W. R. Stinchcomb; Decatur, Watervliet, W. N. Younglove; Dowagiac, G. W. Gosling; Dowagiac, R. H. Bready; Eau Claire, I. H. Skinner; Edwardsburg, A. N. Eldred; H. L. Potter; Keeler and Sil-hartford, H. L. Weldon; Lawrence, W. J. Douglass; Lawton, E. H. Day; Marcellus, E. A. Tanner; Mattawan, H. H. Miller; Niles, Thos. Cox; Paw Paw, A. C. Jones; Pokagon, I. B. Tallman; St. Joseph, E. V. Armstrong; Stevens-ville, S. Trewin; Three Oaks, J. E. Arney; Vandalia, J. H. Emmons.

Jay Harrington is this week attending the fair at Kalamazoo.

Mrs. Charlie Cole is spending the week with Decatur friends.

Mrs. Fannie Emory of Otsego is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Dr. Ferguson.

Rev. G. P. Linderman is now engaged in conducting revival meetings at West Oshkemo.

Mrs. J. W. Travis of Hartford gave us a call yesterday on her way home from Dowagiac.

Judge Heckert addressed a crowded house at Gobles on Monday evening and great enthusiasm is reported.

Mrs. J. C. Stone of Cleveland, Ohio, will address the union temperance meeting at the M. E. church next Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Reynolds are preparing to move into town and will occupy the house owned by Wm. Simmons just east of the Catholic church.

S. E. Higgins, formerly superintendent of our schools, is traveling in the interests of a manufacturing establishment in Ann Arbor and was in town over Sunday.

A running race between two horses owned in Alma made quite a bit of sport at the fair grounds Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hudson's Fox-Hunter defeated the Prairie Queen, owned by Mr. Timmons, besides giving the Queen 100 feet in a half-mile dash. Time, 1:06.

The Prohibitionists of Van Buren county will hold a picnic at Lake Cora on Tuesday next, Oct. 4th. Mrs. J. C. Stone of Cleveland, John Russell, nominee for governor, and others are expected to address the meeting. Half fare on T. & S. H. R'y. Everybody invited.

We are in receipt of a letter written to Mrs. Anna Barton by Neal Dow of Maine, with a request for its publication. As we have no desire to suppress any evidence on either side of the temperance question, we will gladly give it space next week, though received too late for this week's insertion.

A painful accident that might easily have been a fatal one, occurred last Saturday on Mr. Gillespie's farm just south of town. Frank Landphere and Horace McKellar, two lads about 14 years of age, were out hunting and the former had placed his left foot on a log preparatory to springing over it, when young McKellar's gun was accidentally discharged, lodging about 60 feet shot in his companion's left thigh. Dr. Whalen was summoned and succeeded in removing most of them, and the remainder will be taken out as soon as possible. Had the shot entered in the region of an artery, it would have been a close call for the boy.

The big gray team used by Wilbur Babcock for draying purposes is certainly a very unsafe one to handle. It will be remembered that it was this team which not long ago caused the death of Wilbur's father, and on Friday it again took a little spin, though with no serious consequences. However, on Saturday, becoming frightened at the band, it started from behind Munger's store, ran through Mr. Sabin's yard, demolishing a small stable and tearing up the lawn quite badly, then turned east and fell in a heap by colliding with a shade tree near the Disciple church, being at once caught and held by Lynn Oeobock who chanced to be near. A part of the dray was left in Sabin's yard and a part piled on top of the horses.

On Friday evening a genuine surprise was perpetrated on Mr. and Mrs. Will Cooper by about eighty friends who swooped down upon them just as the former was engaged in a game of tid-dy-winks with the children. As they occupy a part of Mrs. J. B. Smith's residence, that lady had been informed of the contemplated invasion and was ready to throw open the entire house for their reception. Fruit and light refreshments were served, music helped to speed the hours away, and not the least pleasant feature of the occasion was the presentation by Rev. Jones of a luxurious easy chair and a set of silver knives and forks, as a testimonial of the appreciation by the M. E. church of Mr. Cooper's services in the choir. The recipients of these gifts were, like Pat, "dumb and speechless wid surprise," but plainly showed by their speaking countenances that they were duly appreciative.

On Saturday afternoon a perspiring crowd converted the Opera House into what the verbose orator of the day was pleased to style a "heated auditorium," and it was probably this fact which accounted for the listless manner in which the address was received, there being a noticeable lack of the cheering that is supposed to punctuate all political harangues. The Hon. Mr. Dean devoted the most of his time to denouncing protection as rank robbery of the poor laboring man, declaring that there never was a protective tariff levied that did not have as its object the creation of an artificial price for some producer who was willing to fill his pockets at the expense of his countrymen, during which absurd statement we couldn't help thinking about those much talked-of steel rails and other kindred instances of a decreased price under protection. Then he denounced the Republicans as a one-sided organization which looked only to the interest of the producer, and, while drops of anguish moistened his brow, commiserated himself and other consumers in the house over the money they are forced to pay into the till of the "protected producer," asserting that he'd "like to be submerged by a flood of cheap goods from England,—the cheaper the better," forgetting that, under the cheap rule, the laborer would be unable to earn the pittance with which to purchase life's necessities, and showing plainly that he was certainly himself doing the very thing for which he had just complained of the Republicans, viz.: looking only on one side of the question. And then we came away thinking, "Consistency, thou art a jewel, but thy name is not Dean."
